

California Proposition 65 Declaration

The Act, commonly known as Proposition (Prop 65), establishes a list of chemicals which the State of California risk assessment process has determined to present a risk of cancer, birth defects or other reproductive harm. The Proposition 65 chemical list can be found at:

<https://oehha.ca.gov/proposition-65/proposition-65-list>

This declaration is to confirm that items manufactured using 92 durometer ST1 polyurethane contain the following chemical(s) which are listed on California's Safe Drinking Water & Toxic Enforcement Act of 1986:

Titanium dioxide (CAS# 13463-67-7)

As supplied, the ingredient(s) are bound in the polymer matrix. Because they are bound in the matrix, they are not expected to create any unusual hazards when handled according to good manufacturing and industrial hygiene practices.

BRECOflex CO., L.L.C. will continue to evaluate the Proposition 65 Regulations for the raw materials of our finished products and communicate the data to our customers.

James Leeuw
ISO Coordinator

To the best of our knowledge, the information contained in this Declaration is accurate and reliable on presently available resources. However, neither the seller nor any of its subsidiaries assumes responsibility or liability whatsoever for the accuracy of completeness of the information contained herein. This Declaration shall not constitute a guarantee for any specific product features. Final determination of this material is the sole responsibility of the user. All materials may present unknown hazards and should be used and handled with caution and following reasonable safety procedures. Consequently, the buyer assumes all risks in connection with the use and handling of this material.